

Rural of Upper Egypt are least expenditure on Education, Transportations and Transporting

CAPMAS conducted a study on "Disparity of Expenditure items in Egypt regions" depending on survey data of "Income, Expenditure & Consumption" in 2008/2009, 2010/2011, its results are as follows.

According to the total expenditure in the Republic regions:

- Rural areas of Upper Egypt recorded the highest expenditure on food & beverages with 47.9% followed by Borders governorates with 44.9%.
- Urban areas of Lower & Upper Egypt represent higher expenditure on housing & its requirements with 19% and less expenditure in rural areas of Upper Egypt with 16.6%.
- Rural & Urban areas of Lower Egypt recorded the highest expenditure on health care & services with 9.3% and less expenditure in Borders governorates with 4.5%.
- Urban governorates recorded higher expenditure on transportations & transporting with 7.9%, while represent the rural areas of Upper Egypt the less with 3%.
- Urban governorates recorded higher expenditure on education with 6.3% and represent the rural areas of Upper Egypt the less with 1.4%.

• According to Education status of the householder:

- Borders governorates represent higher expenditure on food & beverages with 54.2% of householders who can read and write followed by the rural areas of Upper Egypt with 49% of illiterate householders.
- Urban governorates recorded higher expenditure on accommodation & its requirements with 22.3% of householders who have a University certification followed by urban of Upper & Lower Egypt with 19% for the same education status.

- Rural & Urban of Lower Egypt recorded higher rate of expenditure on health care & services in most of education levels with nearly 9%.
- Like Urban governorates higher expenditure of householder that have a University qualification & above with 11% on transportation and 8.7% on education.

• According to practical status of the householder:

- Rural of Upper Egypt recorded higher expenditure on food & beverages with 49.9% of householders who work as a free lancer and not hire others, while urban governorates recorded the less rate of expenditure on food & beverages with 28.2% of householders who are businessmen and hire others.
- Rural of Upper Egypt ranked the first in spending on housing & its requirements with 33.9% of unemployed householders and never worked before, followed by Lower Egypt with 33% for the same practical status.
- Urban Egypt recorded higher rate of expenditure on health care & services with 23% of householders who work for families without wages.
- Urban governorates recorded higher rate of expenditure on transportation, transporting and education with 12.2%, 9.3% per employer householder and the employees.

• According to the accommodation type:

- Rural Upper Egypt ranked the top in the expenditure on food & beverages with 80.1% of resident families in a temporary residence.
- Like Urban governorates higher expenditure per housing & its requirements with 37.1% of families lives in more than one apartment.
- Rural of Lower Egypt recorded higher expenditure on health care & services with 12.7% of families live in Villa.

- Urban governorates of Lower Egypt recorded higher expenditure on education with 13.5% of family's lives in villa.

- According to the family size:

- Like the rural of Upper Egypt higher expenditure on food & beverages with 48.7% of families consist 5- 6 individual.
- Urban governorates of Upper Egypt recorded higher expenditure on housing & its requirements of families consist of 2 individual with 26% per them.
- Urban of Lower Egypt recorded higher expenditure on health care & services with 15.2% of families consist of 2 individuals.
- Urban governorates recorded higher expenditure on education with 10.5% of families consists of 7 individuals & more.