

Press Release

Central Agency for Public Mobilization And Statistics

Self-sufficiency ratio of wheat decreased from 56.4% to 49.1% during (2006- 2015)

Central Agency for Public Mobilization (CAPMAS) and Statistics released on 14 /3/2017 a study of " Economics of food security in Egypt during (2006-2015)". The most important indicators are:

- The deficit quantity of wheat increased during (2006-2015) from 6.4 million tons to 10 million tons by 55.7%, Self-sufficiency ratio decreased from 56.4% to 49.1%, Average per capita decreased from 192.4 to 173.0 kg / capita / year by 10.1%.
- The surplus quantity of rice decreased during (2006-2015) from 976 thousand tons to 141 thousand tons by 85.6%, Self-sufficiency ratio decreased from 126.5% to 102.6%, Average per capita increased from 48.3 to 57.0 kg / capita / year by 18.0%.
- The deficit quantity of beans decreased during (2006-2015) from 338 thousand tons to 267 thousand tons by 21.0%, Self-sufficiency ratio decreased from 43.0% to 31.0%, Average per capita decreased from 6.5 to 3.6 kg / capita / year by 44.6%.
- Self-sufficiency ratio of onions decreased during (2006-2015) from 100.4% to 121.7%, Average per capita increased from 18.4 to 22.9 kg / capita / year by 24.5%.
- Self-sufficiency ratio of Sugarcane fixed during (2006-2015) at 100.0%, Average per capita decreased from 85.4 to 53.0 kg / capita / year by 37.9%.

- The deficit quantity of red meat increased during (2006-2015) from 298 thousand tons to 720 thousand tons by 141.6%, Self-sufficiency ratio decreased from 74.6% to 57.5%, Average per capita increased from 16.3 to 19.1 kg / capita / year by 17.2%.
- The deficit quantity of white meat increased during (2006-2015) from 10 thousand tons to 98 thousand tons, Self-sufficiency ratio decreased from 98.7% to 92.9%, Average per capita increased from 11.1 to 15.4 kg / capita / year by 38.7%.
- The deficit quantity of fish decreased during (2006-2015) from 202 thousand tons to 185 thousand tons by 8.4%, Self-sufficiency ratio increased from 82.8% to 89.0%, Average per capita increased from 16.3 to 19.2 kg / capita / year by 17.8%.
- Egypt come in level 57 globally among 113 countries, and level 8 among arab countries according to global food security index in 2016.
- Egypt come in level 59 globally among 118 countries, and level 3 among arab countries according to global hunger index in 2016.

