

Press Release

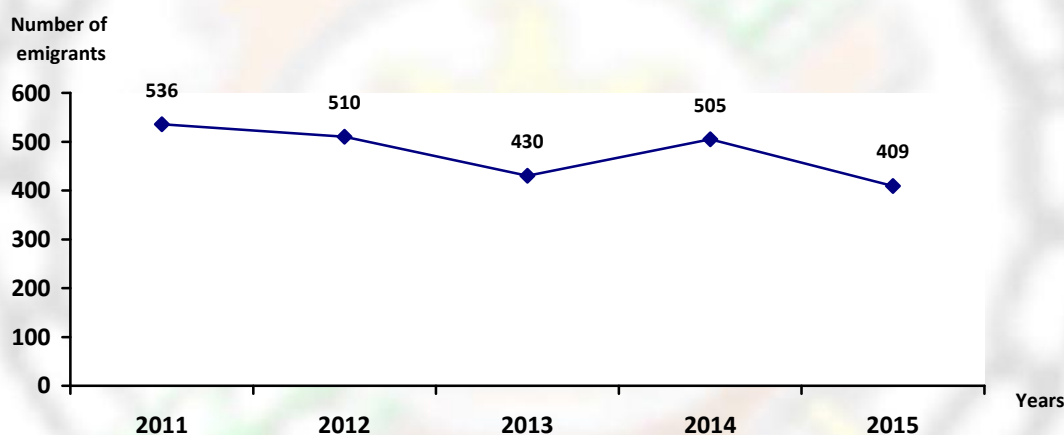

Central Agency for Public Mobilization And Statistics

19% decline in the number of Egyptian emigrants and those who have acquired emigrant status in 2015

CAPMAS issued in 14 / 7 / 2016 " The Annual Bulletin for Egyptians who have obtained approval to migrate abroad and Egyptians who have acquired foreign nationality in 2015". The following is the most important statistical indicators in the Bulletin

- The number of Egyptian emigrants and those who have acquired emigrant status reached 409 emigrants (main and accompanied) in 2015 compared to 505 emigrants in 2014, decline of 19% .

Development of the number of Egyptian emigrants and those who have acquired emigrant status during (2011 - 2015)

Italy was the first in the number of Egyptian emigrants and those who have acquired emigrant status by 37.9%

- The number of Egyptian emigrants and those who have acquired emigrant status reached 369 native migrants by 90.2% , 40 accompanied emigrants by 9.8% of the total number.
- Italy came in the first rank of the number of Egyptian emigrants and those who have acquired emigrant status was 155 by 37.9% of the total number.

- The number of Egyptians males who have emigrats and those who have acquired emigrant status reached 368 emigrants by 90% ,compared to 41 female migrants by 10% of the total.
- The number of University degree-level qualifications of the Egyptian emigrants and those who have acquired emigrant status reached 208 by 53.3 % of the total number (main and accompanied ties migrants) in (10 years and over) which reached 390 migrants .
- Those in the age group of (35-39) was in the first rank of the number of Egyptian emigrants and those who have acquired emigrant status, reached 127 migrant by 31.1 % followed by age group of (40-44) a number of 93 emigrants by 22.7 % of the total.

56.5 % of the total number of Egyptians who have acquired foreign nationality was from European countries group

- The number of Egyptians who have acquired foreign citizenship reach 2200 emigrants in 2015 compared to 1928 emigrants in 2014, an increase of 14.1 % . European countries group came in the first rank , that reached of 1243 emigrants by 56.5% , followed by American States group of 520 emigrants by 23.6%, then Arabian States of 316 of emigrants by 14.4% of the total .

