

5.3% Increase in number of private sector employees in nursing field in 2010

CAPAMS issued on Wednesday 9/5/2012 - A press statement on "International Nurses Day" which falls on May 12 of every year. Celebrate the International Nurses Day in the twelve of May where it approved with the annual memorial birth of "Florence Natingel" in Florence town, Italy in 1820. Foundations has been set for modern nursing education and nursing services levels, and it aims to highlight the role of nursing staff members in health sector and provide them with the necessary knowledge and develop their professional skills.

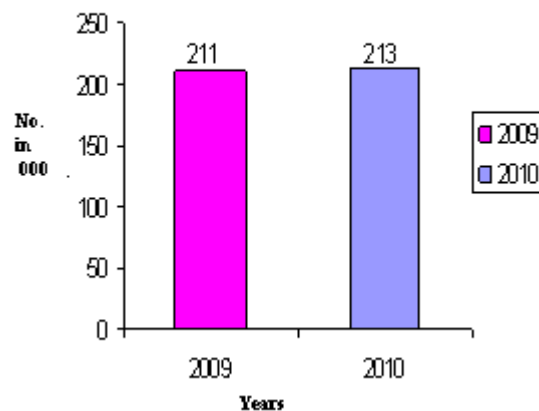

CAPMAS statistics indicates to the following indicators:

- Number of nursing staff members reached to 213375 in 2010 versus 210857 in 2009 with an increase 1.2%.
- Total nursing staff those who actually working in governmental sector reached to 161716 nurses in 2010 versus 167038 in 2009 with a decrease 3.2%.

Nursing Staff in Governmental Sector

Members number of Nursing Union

- Total nursing staff those who actually work in private sector reached to 15586 in 2010 versus 14806 in 2009 with an increase 5.3%.

- Average nurse/nurses per thousand of population in governmental sector reached to 2.1 in 2010.

- Average nurse/nurses per beds in governmental sector reached to 1.6 in 2010.

- Number of nursing schools reached to 213 in 2009, 2010, and number of graduates 2249 in 2010 versus 4854 in 2009 with a decrease 53.7%, and this because of the existence of emptiness year in schools.

- Number of nursing institutions reached to 16 in 2010 and number of graduates 938 in 2010 versus 839 in 2009 with an increase 11.8%.

- Number of nursing Universities reached to 14 in 2010 and number of graduates 2603 in 2010 versus 2324 in 2009 with an increase 12%.

