

9.6 million acres of total rein area in 2010

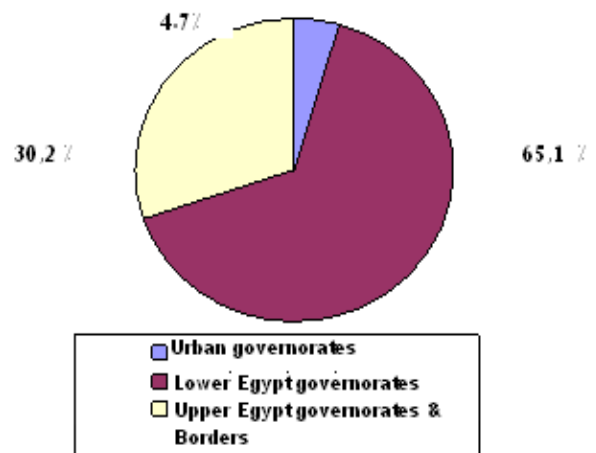

CAPMAS issued on Thursday 25/8/2011 bulletin on "Rein area & agricultural land ownership in 2010" where the bulletin highlighted increase during the last 5 years of total rein area with ratio 1.7%, increase on the lands available for agriculture with ratio 2.4%, and its main indicators are:

-Total rein area reached 6.9 million acres in 2010 as it ranked the first represented in Lower Egypt governorates, where the area reached 6.2 million acres with ratio 64.6%, followed by Upper Egypt governorates and Egypt Borders, where the area reached 2.9 million acres with ratio 30.2%, then Urban governorates reached its area to 0.5 million acres with ratio 5.2%.

Relative distribution for rein total area

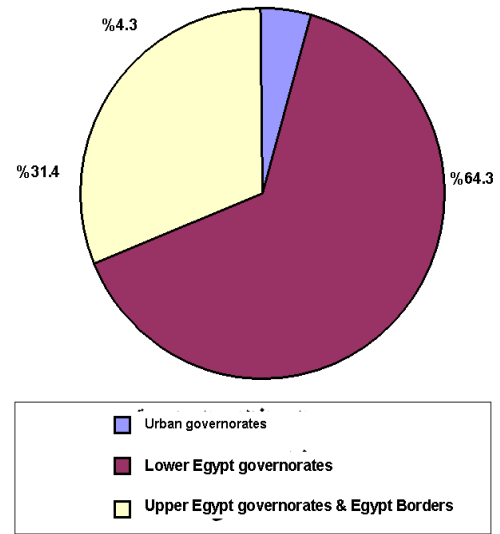

-Total lands available for agriculture reached 8.6 million acres represented on Lower Egypt governorates as it ranked the first, where, its area reached 5.6 million acres with ratio 65.1%, followed by Upper Egypt governorates and Egypt Borders, where the area reached 2.6 million acres with ratio 30.2%, then Urban governorates reached its area to 0.4 million acres with ratio 4.7%.

Relative distribution of lands available for agriculture

-Total ownership of families for agriculture lands reached 7.0 million acres represented on Lower Egypt governorates as it ranked the first, where, its area reached 4.5 million acres with ratio 64.3%, followed by Upper Egypt governorates and Egypt Borders, where, the area reached 2.2 million acres with ratio 31.4%, then Urban governorates reached its area to 0.3 million acres with ratio 4.3%.

Relative distribution of families ownership of agriculture lands