

Press Release

Central Agency for Public Mobilization And Statistics

On the occasion of WorldL Radio Day(WRD) Radio networks achieve 190.3 thousand broadcast hours Year 2019/2020

Today, 11 / 2 / 2021, Central Agency for Public Mobilization and Statistics issued a press release for World Radio Day that is celebrated annually on February 13 it was approved by UNESCO aiming to pay attention to its status as an essential means of media and communication in local and global media level and international cooperation between various broadcasts in the world (such edition of)WRD IS divided into 3 main sub-themes:
(Evolution – The world changes – Radio evovles)□

Among the most important statistical indicators of National Media Authority are the following:

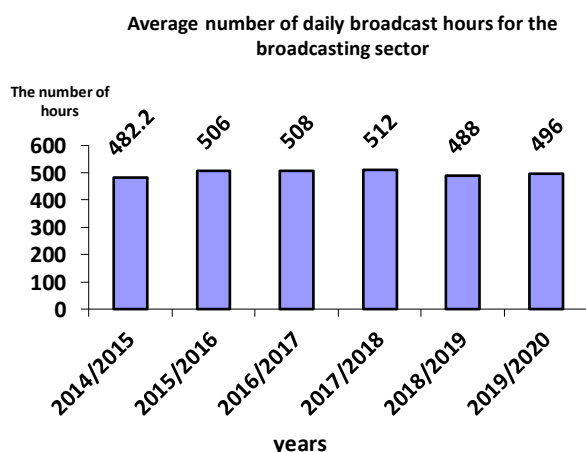

- Number of radio networks reached 10 networks with a total number of 190.3 thousand audio broadcast hours in 2019/2020.

-Regional network occupied the largest share with 66616 hours of total broadcast hours, at a rate of 36.7%, with a daily average of 182 hours, followed by the directed foreign radio network, reaching 22326 hours, at a rate of 12.3%, with a daily average of 61 hours in 2019/2020.

- Entertainment field occupied the largest share of the total number of radio broadcasting hours, reaching 42375 hours, at a rate of 23.3%, with a daily average of 115 hours, followed by cultural field, which reached 31402 hours at a rate of 17.3% with a daily average of 85 hours, followed by hours of broadcasting the cultural network, 21960, at a rate of 12.1% of the total hours of audible broadcast with average of 60 hours per day in 2019/2020.

- Number of broadcast hours for (General Program) broadcast reached 8784 hours in 2019/2020.

- Average daily hours of broadcasting in the radio sector reached 496 hours in 2019/2020.

Source: Annual statistical report of National Media Authority