

Press Release

Central Agency for Public Mobilization And Statistics

20.9 % decrease in The value of Exports From Egypt To East Asia's Countries in 2014

Central Agency for Public Mobilization and Statistics issued today 3/12/2015

the annual publication of trade exchange between Egypt and East Asia countries in 2014 which deals with the presentation and analysis of the volume of trade (Exports and Imports) with the most important East Asia's Countries, "Malaysia - China - Taiwan- India Japan- Indonesia- Pakistan- South Korea"

The most important indicators are:

- The total value of exports to the East Asia's Countries reached 24.7 billion pounds in 2014 versus 31.2 billion pounds in 2013, a decrease of 20.9 %, and such value of exports in relation to the world is 12.6 % in 2014 versus 15.6% in 2013.

- The total value of imports from East Asia's Countries reached 133.2 billion pounds in 2014 versus 108.1 billion pounds in 2013, an increase of 23.2 %, and this value of imports in relation to the world is 25.4 % in 2014 versus 23.7 % in 2013.

- India came in the first rank of exports with value of 13.7 billion pounds in 2014 versus 14.7 billion pounds in 2013 with a decrease of 6.7 %, The most important items that had been exported to India are Crude Oil, and came in second place Japan with a value of 2.6 billion pounds in 2014 versus 3.1 billion pounds in 2013 a decrease of 16.1%. The most important items that were exported to Japan were refined liquefied oil.
- China came in the first place for imports with a value of 59.6 billion pounds in 2014 versus 47.9 billion pounds in 2013, an increase of 24.4%, The most important items that were imported are Electrical machinery equipment and its parts boilers, machinery and mechanical appliances and its parts, While imports to India came at the second place as it reached 18.1 billion pounds in 2014 versus 15.5 billion pounds in 2013, an increase of 16.2%. The most important items that were imported are edible meat, edible offal product, and gas oil (diesel).
- Fuel and petroleum products and quarrying products came in the first place for exports in 2013, 2014 with a value of 16.7 billion pounds in 2014 versus 23.3 billion pounds in 2013, a decrease of 28.3%.
- Mechanical, and Electrical appliances, transport equipment and its parts came in the first place for imports in 2013, 2014 with a value of 45.9 billion pounds in 2014 versus 36.8 billion pounds in 2013, an increase of 24.7%.