

Press release on the Attendance of Mr.\ President of CAPMAS the event of the 43rd Statistical Committee in the UN

In the framework of the interaction between CAPMAS and International Organizations, Mr.Birgade \ Abu Bakr El Gendy President of CAPMAS has been invited to attend the event of the 43rd Statistical Committee in the US in occasion of the Annual meeting of the Statistical Committee in the US which is held at the UN headquarter - New York from 25 February to 2 March 2012 to discuss important topics in the Statistical field.

The agenda include discussing important issues on the Statistical area which contributed mostly in enriching and develop the Statistical work on the Local, Regional, and International Level which is include: Population & Housing Census, Crime Statistics, National Accounts, Agriculture Statistics, Environmental & Economic Statistics, Energy Statistics, Information Technology & Communication Statistics, National framework to Quality Assurance, implement the basic principles of Official Statistics, Coordinate the Statistical Activities in the UN, and Human Development Statistics.

At the invitation of Mr.\ Paul Cheung Chief of Statistical Section in the UN will be make Mr.\ President of CAPMAS to lecture on "Arab spring and its implication on the Statistical Agencies".

Worth to be mentioned that the basic functions for the UN Statistical Section is: collect & analyze & disseminate statistical information, standardize the Statistical concepts & definitions & methodologies & classifications, provide cooperation programs of technical & support programs, supporting the Statistical System as it is on the top of the statistical system in the world, and coordinate programs & statistical activities on the International level.

Statistical section in the UN published the latest statistical reports include the Statistical Year Book for the United Nation, and reports on the Statistical methods & techniques. Also they has an available database on their Web page contains indicators about all countries in the world.