

Press Release

Central Agency for Public Mobilization And Statistics

On the occasion of the International Day for students 6.8 %increase in the number of students enrolled in Technical Institutes above intermediate ( governmental – private ) in 2013/2014

Central Agency for Public Mobilization and Statistics issued a press release on the occasion of the International Day for students where the World Federation of the students announced 17 November as annual World Day celebrating students in their educational institutions in various parts of the world to commemorate the struggle against the Nazi German occupation, after its close of all institutes and Higher educational institutions following the martyrdom of one of the students in Prague (the capital of the former Czechoslovakia)

The most important statistical indicators as follow:

- Secondary Education (General / Azhari)

The total number of students enrolled in secondary education reached 1.81 million students (1.46 million general education , 356 thousand Azhari education) during the academic year 2013/2014 compared to 1.73 million students (1.39 million general education, 341 thousand Azhari education) during the academic year 2012/2013, an increase of 4.7 %.

The percentage of students enrolled in public schools is 87.9 % , 12.1 % at private schools during the academic year 2013/2014, compared to 88.5 % at public schools, 11.5% at private schools during the academic year 2012/2013

- Secondary technical education

The total number of students enrolled in technical secondary schools reached 1.61 million students during the academic year 2013/2014 compared to 1.69 million students during the academic year 2012/2013, a decrease of 4.6 %.

The percentage of students enrolled in industrial education is 49.3 % , 40.4 % at trade education, and 10.3 % at agricultural education during the academic year 2013/2014.

The total number of students enrolled in secondary education reached 3.42million students were 42.5% in general Secondary,10.4% Azhari Secondary,47.1% technician Secondary during the academic year 2013/2014

The relative distribution of number of students enrolled in secondary school during the academic year 2013/2014

- Technical Institutes above intermediate ( governmental –private )

The total number of students enrolled in technical institutes reached 117 thousand students during the academic year 2013/2014 compared to 110 thousand students during the academic year 2012/2013, an increase of 6.8 %.

The percentage of students enrolled in technical governmental institutes is 93.5, 6.5 % at private technical institutes during the academic year 2013/2014.

- Universities and higher education private institutes and academies

Total students enrolled reached 2.22 million students during the academic year 2013/2014, compared to 2.14 million students during the academic year 2012/2013, an increase of 3.7 %.

The percentage of students enrolled in public universities and Al Azhar is 76.1% , 5.0 % at private universities, 16.0% at higher private institutes, 1.1 % at academies, 1.8 % at institutes that grant pre-mid bachelor's and diploma ( student who gets a good rating at least after the second year) during the academic year 2013/2014.

Al-Azhar University occupied the first rank in terms of the number of students in public universities where numbered 297 thousand students (17.6 %), followed by Cairo University 235 thousand students (13.9 %) of the total number of students of governmental universities during the academic year 2013/2014.

Misr University of Science and Technology occupied the first rank in terms of number of students enrolled in private universities that reached 16 thousand students by 14.0 %, followed by Six of October University of 15 thousand students (13.6%) of the total number of students of private universities during the academic year 2013/2014 .