

Press Statement

On Yemen delegation visit to CAPMAS within the framework of preparation to the Public census of Population

CAPMAS meets with a delegation from the Republic of Yemen within the framework of preparation of public census of population, housing and establishments for year 2012 in Yemen in cooperation with UNFPA during the period 16-23 December 2012 at CAPMAS headquarters – Nasr City.

The objective of this visit is to train the Yemen trainees on the methods of using GIS in census, using samples in census & surveys, using high technology of scanners & computers in census, and how to design – test – operate population database; as well as, designing graphics and electronic web design.

The delegation include 16 member from Yemen statistical agency with the participation of the elite training staff from CAPMAS specialized from all its sectors as Population & census statistics sectors, Information Technology sector in cooperation with the central department of affairs office of CAPMAS president, as a target to enhance the statistical capabilities in various areas.