

Press Release

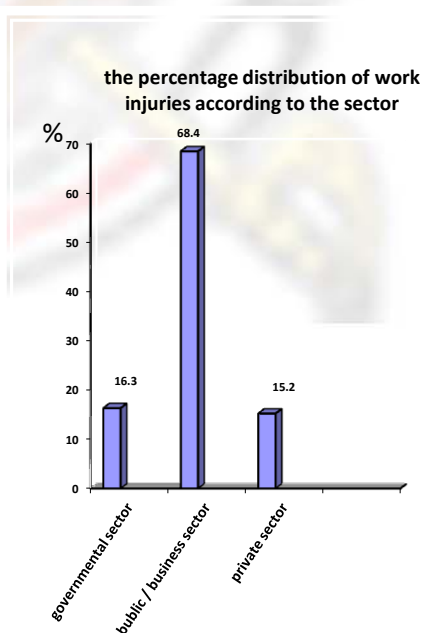

Central Agency for Public Mobilization And Statistics

on the occasion of the International Day for work accidents 4,5 % increase in the number of cases of work injuries in 2012

Central Agency for Public Mobilization and Statistics, issues today 27 / 4/2014 a press release on the annually occasion of the International Day of work accidents in 28 April approved by the ILO since 2003, in memory of workers who died from accidents and occupational injuries and confirmation of the importance of taking the necessary procedures to prevent accidents , injuries and occupational diseases and to provide healthy working environment under the slogan (prevention of occupational diseases) .

The most important statistical indicators are as follows: -

- The total number of work injuries cases reached 17954 case in 2012 Compared to 17182 case in 2011 an increase of 772 case which Represents 4, 5 % .
- The number of work injuries cases in the governmental Sector reached 2932 case representing 16, 3 % of the total number of cases in 2012 compared to 2059 case in 2011, by 12% of the total number of cases .
- The number of work injuries cases in Public / business sector reached 12287 case representing 68,4% of the total number of cases in 2012 compared to 12045 case in 2011, an increase of 242 case representing 2,01%.
- The number of work injuries cases in the private sector (50 Workers and more) reached 2735 case representing 15,2 % of the total number of cases in 2012 compared to 3078 case in 2011, a decline of 343 case which represent 11,1 %.

- The number of work injuries cases for males reached 89, 7% of the total number of cases compared to 10,3 % for females.
- The Manufacturing activities acquired the largest proportion of the work injuries cases as it reached 63,9 % of the total number of cases followed by transport and storage activities with 12,7%.
- The high Factory workers, machinery operators and production worker recorded the highest proportion of injuries cases as it reached 35,7% of the total number of cases followed by professions, technicians and specialists aides with 27,8%.
- The percentage of work-place injury occurred in the work represent 84,7 % of the total number of cases.
- The percentage of work injury occurred in the road to work represent 12,6 % of the total number of cases .
- The percentage of work injury occurred in road from work represent 0,9 % of the total number of cases .

