

On the occasion of International Family Day the increase rate reached in the average annual expenses of family to 9.7% during the period (2008/2009 – 2010/2011)

In the frame of celebrating "International Family Day" corresponding to 15 of May every year, CAPMAS issued on Monday 14/5/2012 a press statement to celebrate this occasion. The general assembly of UN in 1993 had issued a decree considering 15 May an international family day to pay attention to the family, and urged all countries, and official & unofficial authorities to work on raise its living standard to make the family an effective unit in the overall development and achieve the developing objectives. CAPMAS statistics indicates to the following indicators:

 Estimated Population indicate the following:

- Number of Egyptian family estimated about 18.5 million at the end of year 2011, include:
- 8.5 million household at Urban areas, with 46.0% of total household.
- 10.0 million household at Rural areas, with 54.0% of total household.

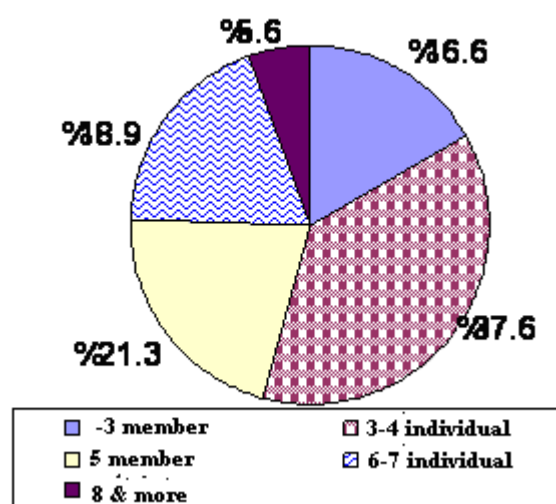

Estimated number of families at the end of year 2011

* Survey results of income, expenditure, and consumption for year 2010/2011 as follow:

- 16.6% of household member's number less than 3 individual.
- 37.6% of household their member's number estimated between 3-4 individual.
- 21.3% of household their member's number 5 individual.
- 18.9% of household their member's number estimated between 6-7 individual.
- 5.6% of household their member's number 8 individual & more.

Relative distribution of families by their member's number

- Average total annual expenditure per family:

Average total annual expenditure per family raise from 17.6 thousand pound in 2008/2009 to 19.3 thousand pound in 2010/2011 (Fixed prices), and with an increase by 9.7% during this period, which indicates to the improvement of living standard of the family.

- * Changing in the annual expenditure items per family:

Decrease the family expenditure rate of food & beverages group from 44.1% of total annual family expenditure in 2008/2009 to 35.4% in 2010/2011, while increased the family expenditure rate of some other items such as housing & its equipments, services & health care, transporting & transportation, and communications.

- Householder:

Most of householders are men where they reached to 83.4%, while 16.6% of householders are women in 2010/2011.

Family possessions from house appliances, transportation means, and communications:

- 90.0% of household own colored TV.
- 91.2 % of household own a refrigerator.
- 20.6% of household own automatic washing machine.
- 6.5% of household own air condition.
- 43.1% of household own water heater (electricity/gas).
- 18.8% of household own electric vacuum.
- 6.1% of household own a vehicle.
- 40.5% of household shared in a landline telephone.
- 85.8% of household own a mobile.
- 22.1% of household own computer/laptop.
- 7.9% of household deal with the internet.

- Housing Type:

- 72% of total household of the Republic lives in apartment, and 17.5% of household lives in rural house.

- 5.4% of total household lives in a room or more, 1.6% of household lives in a dependent room or more, and less than 0.1% lives in shelter house(tent, shanty,...).

- Possessing a house:

- 60% of total households on the Republic level have their own house.

- As for the rest of the household who posses a house, as follows:

- 12.8% old law rent.

- 5.4% new law rent.

- 6.2% owned.

- 15.0% donated.

- 0.6% other (rented with furnish – benefits in kind).

- Connected to water general network & health drainage:

Rate of inhabited families in housing units connected to water general network reached about 96.8%, as for the rate of household connected with health drainage network reached 62.1%.

- Householders participation in insurance, pensions, and health insurance:

59.1% of total participate or beneficiary of householders from insurance & pensions, and 37.6% of total householders participated in health insurance

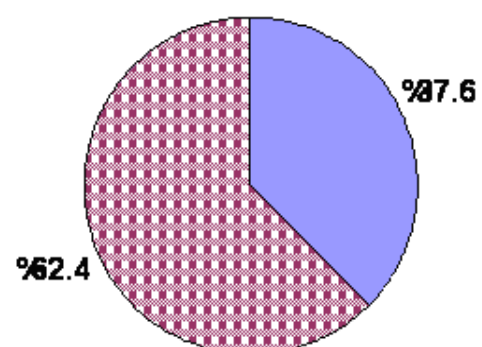

Relative distribution of families by the type of the possessed house

Relative distribution of householders by participation of benefited from insurance or pension

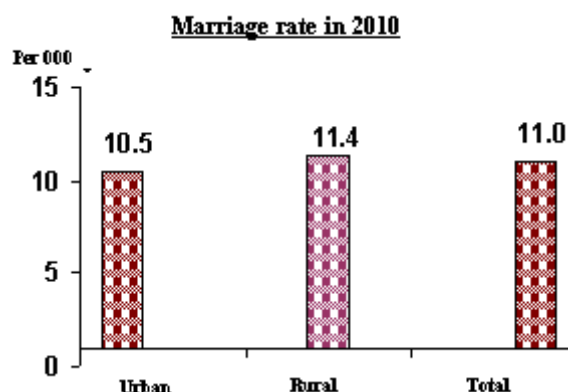

Relative distribution of householders by participation in health insurance

- Marriage ratio:

Marriage rate raised from (9.9 in 000) in 2009 to (11 in 000) in 2010, this rate increase in rural areas where it reached to (11.4 in 000) versus (10.5 in 000) in Urban in 2010.

- Divorce ratio:

Marriage rate raised from (1.8 in 000) in 2009 to (1.9 in 000) in 2010, this rate increase in Urban areas where it reached to (2.5 in 000) versus (1.4 in 000) in Rural in 2010.

