

Press Release

Central Agency for Public Mobilization And Statistics

On The Occasion of the World Teacher's Day

5.4 % increase in the number of pre- university education teachers for 2013/2014

Central Agency for Public Mobilization and Statistics issued today, 4 / 10 / 2015 issued a press statement on the occasion of the world teacher Day, which is celebrated on 5 October each year and approved by the United Nations Educational, Cultural and Scientific Organization (UNESCO) since 1994 ,commemorating the signing of the joint recommendation of the International Labour Organization and UNESCO in recognition of the international community, the effective role of the teacher in the sustainable development this year theme is " Enable teachers to sustainable communities."

the most important statistical indicators are as fallows:

• pre-university education:

- The total number of teachers pre-university education reached 1.11 million teacher during 2013/2014 compared to 1.09 million teachers during 2012/2013, an increase of 1.5% of the total teachers.
- The total number of teachers in general education (943 thousand teachers 0.164 thousand teacher Azhari education) teach to the number of pupils 20.6 million (18.6 million in general education 0.21 Azhari education) average teacher / 19 pupil during 2013/2014 Compared to one million teachers (933 thousand in the education of 0.158 thousand Azhari education) 2012/2013 teach to the number of 20.4 million students (18.3 million in general, Azhari education 2.1 million) with an average teacher / 19 pupil 2012/2013.
- The total number of teachers reached at pre-primary education stage reached 42.2 thousand teacher (37.8 thousand in education, 4.3 thousand Azhari education) teach to 1.2 million pupils (1.1 million at public education, 66.2 thousand at Azhari education) with an average teacher /28 pupil.
- The total number of teachers in primary school reached 466.1 thousand teacher (394.7 thousand in general education, 71.4 thousand Azhari education) teach to 11 million students (9.9 million at public education 0.1 Azhari education) average teacher /24 pupil.
- The total number of teachers of secondary stage education reached 288.8 thousand teacher (242.3 thousand in public education, 46.5 thousand Azhari education) teach to of 4.8 million pupils (4.3 million public education, Azhari education 468.1 thousand) with an average teacher /17 pupil.

- The total number of teachers in secondary education reached 142 thousand teacher (103.7 thousand in public education, 38.3 thousand Azhari education) teach to 1.8 million pupils (1.5 million public education, Azhari education 356.5 thousand) with an average teacher / 13pupil.
- The total number of teachers in secondary technical education reached 146.4 thousand teachers teaching to 1.6 million, with an average teacher /11 pupil.
- The total number of teachers, at community education schools reached 8.3 thousand teachers teach to 99.5 thousand average teacher /12 pupil.
- The total number of teachers in special education schools reached 9.7 thousand teachers teach to 36.1 thousand, average teacher / 4 pupils.

• University education :

- The total number of faculty members for the academic year 2013/2014 at higher education reached 109 thousand members teach to 2.3 million students, an average faculty member / 21 students, compared to 104 thousand members teach to the number of 2.3 million students, an average faculty member / 22 students in 2012 / 2013, an increase of 5.4%.
- The total number of faculty members of the public universities and Al-Azhar University reached 88 thousand members teach to 1.7 million students, an average faculty member / 19 students.
- The total number of faculty members in private universities reached 7 thousand members teach to 112 thousand students, with an average faculty member / 15 students.
- The total number of faculty members of the Supreme institutes and academies reached 10.1 thousand members teach to 379.3 thousand students, with an average faculty member / 38 student.
- The total number of faculty members of the technical institutes (above average) government and private reached 3.1 thousand members teach to 117.2 thousand students, with an average faculty member / 38 student.
- The total number of faculty members of the institutes that give students master's diploma and bachelor's above average (for the student who gets a good degree at least after the second year) reached 658 Member teach to the number of 40.1 thousand students with an average faculty member / 61 students.