

Press statement

Central Agency for Public Mobilization And Statistics

21 millions users of Central Agency for Public Mobilization And Statistics (CAPMAS) website until October 2017

Central Agency for Public Mobilization And Statistics (CAPMAS) issued on 31/ 10 /2017 a press release on the occasion of "the increased number of website users to 21 millions users until October 2017 ".

The website was established in 2000 and continuously developed to comply with the international standards of data dissemination, which are recognized in the statistical agencies all over the world to achieve the purpose of displaying data in an easy way in order to meet various categories data users .

CAPMAS disseminates (Statistics, Publication, Databases, Field surveys) that covers all the Economic and Social aspects, Egypt Census results 2017, Media section, and the Electronic services via website www.capams.gov.eg in Arabic & English version.

Also,CAPMAS launched Egypt Geoportal website www.geoportal.capmas.gov.eg in November 2016 and it consider the first gate that provides Egypt vision to data users with all the sectors represented on a geographical maps to the smallest administrative level (Sheikha - Village).

CAPMAS provides accessing and downloading data in PDF form or Excel to maximize the benefits of website users.

The highest website access were represented in:

- Special Data Dissemination Standard (SDDS).
- Statistical Yearbook, Egypt in Figures
- Income, Expenditure and Consumption survey.
- Monthly indices for (consumer prices, Producers, average consumer prices for most important food commodity, average prices for most important building materials)
- Tourism Statistics.
- Foreign Trade.
- Monthly Informatics Bulletin.

- Raw Data (Income, Expenditure and Consumption - Labour Force - Economic Census).

It is worth mentioning that in the development framework, Some publications and statistics have been published on CAPMAS Website in English.

P, O, Box 2086 Salah Salem, Nasr City, Cairo, Egypt

Fax:(02)24024099 NIC:(02)24020574 Public relation:(02)24020231

Email: pres_capmas@capmas.gov.eg

Website : <http://www.capmas.gov.eg>