

2.8 % increase in the number of graduates of Governmental
Sector training institutions for the academic

Central Agency for Public Mobilization and Statistics , issued today monday 30 /3/2015 "Annual Bulletin for Education Statistics in the training institutions (schools – Institutes – Training centers) in Governmental and private sector 2013/2014," which aims to monitor the types of training to develop human skills to gain additional expertise in multiple disciplines .

The most important indicators are as follows :

Training institutions in the governmental and private sector:

- The total number of training institutions (schools, training centers, institutes) reached 602 institutions in 2013/2014 compared to 654 institution in 2012/2013, a decrease of 8% Cairo governorate, represents the largest number as it reached 111 institution, followed by Giza 41 institutions .

• The governmental sector:

- The total number of training institutions (schools – institutes –training centers) reached 468 institutions in 2013/2014 compared to 472 in 2012/2013 institutions, a decline of 0.8%.

- Nursing training institutions occupied the first place, reaching 191 institution by 40.8% of the total number of training institutions, number of students in training institutions reached 287.5

thousand students in 2013/2014 compared to 289.3 thousand students in 2012/2013 a decrease of 0.6%, while the number of graduates in training institutes reached 244.7 thousand graduates in 2013/2014 compared to 238.1 thousand graduates in 2012/2013, an increase of 2.8%.