

Press Release

Central Agency for Public Mobilization And Statistics

5.6 % Egypt exports to African countries in 2016

The Central Agency for Public Mobilization and Statistics (CAPMAS) issued in 22/11/2017 press release on the occasion of the African Statistical Day, which is celebrated every year. The statement reviews the total exports and imports of African countries and the top four countries for exports and imports.

The total value of exports to African countries amounted to $ 1253.1 million, accounting for 5.6% of the total exports of about $ 22501.7 million. The highest values in four countries were concentrated in 54.9% of Egypt's total exports to the total of African countries.

Ranking them according to the highest exports of four countries:

- 1- Kenya: The value of exports to Kenya reached about 264.4 million dollars, accounting for 21.1% of the total exports of African countries. The most important items are: (sugar and its products 78.2 million dollars, paper and articles 26.3 million dollars).
- 2- South Africa: The value of exports to South Africa reached about 226.3 million dollars, accounting for 18.0% of the total exports of African countries and the most important items (gold and its products, 162.1 million dollars and Receivers for the broadcast 20.4 million US dollars).
- 3. Ethiopia: The value of exports to Ethiopia amounted to about $ 106.2 million, accounting for 8.5% of the total exports of African countries. The most important items are aromatic oils, $ 14.3 million, for plastics and plastics, $ 12.1 million.
- 4. Nigeria: The value of exports to Nigeria amounted to about 90.6 million dollars, representing 7.3% of the total exports of African countries. The most important items are towels and sanitary pads, 26.8 million dollars and jet fuel 14.0 million dollars.

1.5% Egypt imports from African countries in 2016

The total value of imports from African countries amounted to 1042.9 million dollars, representing 1.5% of the total national imports, which amounted to about 71356.6 million dollars.

The highest values in four countries are concentrated in 86.8% of the value of imports from African countries

Ranking them according to the highest imports of four countries:

1. Nigeria: The value of imports from Nigeria amounted to about 331.6 million dollars, representing 31.8% of the total imports of African countries. The most important items are natural gas 324.5 million dollars
2. Kenya: The value of imports from Kenya reached about 306.8 million dollars, accounting for 29.4% of the total imports of African countries. The most important items are tea, 280.1 million dollars and tobacco 9.9 million dollars.
3. Zambia: The value of imports from Zambia amounted to about 135.4 million dollars, accounting for 12.9% of the total imports of African countries. The main items of copper and its products are 135.3 million dollars.
4. South Africa: The value of imports from South Africa amounted to 131.5 million dollars, accounting for 12.7% of the total imports of African countries. The main items of coal are: 77.1 million dollars, iron ore and concentrates, 14.0 million dollars.

Website: www.capmas.gov.eg P.O. Box 2086 Salah Salem, Nasr City, Cairo, Egypt

Tel: Public Relations Tel. no:(02) 24020231 ... National Information Center (NIC): (02) 24020574

CAPMAS President Fax no: 24024099 E- mail:pres_capmas@capmas.gov.eg