

International domestic & passengers increase to 9.1 % in air transport in 2010

CAPMAS issued on Sunday 4/9/2011 annual bulletin of air transport for national companies, where, total international & domestic movements for air transport passengers reach 14.4 million passengers in 2010 versus 13.2 million passengers in 2009 with increase ratio 9.1%, and its main indicators are:

- Airports that have national flight companies reach 15 airports.

- National aviation companies reach 9 companies; one of them is a public sector, 7 private sectors, and one private investment company.

- Used airplanes 104 planes, 81 are owned planes with ratio 77.9%, 23 rented airplanes with ratio 22.1%.

- Total international & domestic aviation movements (passengers, cargo) in airports reach 203.3 thousands; 109.8 thousand of them are international flights with ratio 54.0%, 93.5 thousand of them are domestic flights with ratio 46.0%.

- Transferred cargo movements reach 166.4 thousand ton exported with ratio 52.5%, 79.1 thousand ton imported with ratio 47.5%, and 28.3 thousand ton of them transit.

- Employees in national aviation companies reach 37716 employees, and total wages, social insurances, and benefit of kinds reach 1.8 milliard pound.

