

New Release of "Statistical Abstract Egypt in 2012"

CAPMAS announced a new release of "Statistical Abstract Egypt 2012", and will be available on the website for all users start from Monday 4/6/2012... The new release includes the latest indicators and rates on Demographics Statistics that covers Population, Birth, Death, Marriage, and Divorce. Social Statistics that: covers Education Statistics of Pre University / University Education, Health indicators, Culture Statistics, Technical Activity, and Economic Statistics that: covers Foreign Trade Statistics, and Financial, Industrial production, and Transportation & Communications Statistics as well as Tourism and Environmental Statistics.

It characterized by including the latest data & information available at CAPMAS, and other concerned Authorities during 2010 – 2011; which gives an expressive picture, Statistical information reflect the changes that have occurred in most sectors of the Republic, show the differences in a simple way at a total level, to provide a brief statistical release achieved easily and quickly to extract information & data.

By making, this version CAPMAS hope to provide the users needs from data for the decision makers, researchers, individuals, institutions, local, regional and international organizations.

To see data and information of the new release from "Statistical Abstract Egypt in 2012" you can visit our website: www.capmas.gov.eg