

Cairo International Book Fair

In the frame work of Disseminate Statistical Awareness, and identifying CAPMAS Statistical products. CAPMAS participated in the 43 session of Cairo International book fair, which schedule to end in 7/2/212.

CAPMAS presents all its products that covers all social, demographic, economics, and environmental aspects which contains more than 120 different monthly, annual, and periodical version , as well as, different population census results ,which most recent was 2006.

CAPMAS welcoming the visitors at its location in the Investment Hall , and identify the services which served through the National center for statistical training and the Training center of information technology and respond to the requests of the visitor of the exhibition with information and different releases.