

14% increase in Added Value for Economic Organizations year 2010 / 2011

CAPMAS issued on Sunday 18/3/2012 –Annual bulletin for Economic Statistics & Indicators for Economic Organizations year 2010/2011 and its most important indicators are as follows:

1- Net Added Value reached to 147.9 billion pound in 2010/2011 versus 129.7 billion pound in 2009/2010 with an increase 14%, represented in most of all sectors and mostly in Insurance & Social affairs Sector.

2- Wages value reached to 10.5 billion pound in 2010/2011 versus 8.9 billion pound in 2009/2010 with an increase 18%, represented in most of all sectors and mostly in Transportation & Communication Sector.

3- Total gross value with the cost of elements of production reached to 151.1 billion pound in 2010/2011 versus 132.7 billion pound in 2009/2010 with an increase 13.9%, represented in most of all sectors and mostly in Insurance & Social affairs Sector.

4- Fixed capitalist formation value reached to 23.3 billion pound in 2010/2011 versus 30.5 billion pound in 2009/2010 with a decreased 23.6%, represented in most of all sectors and mostly in Tourism Sector.

5- Commodity fees & tax value reached to 5.6 billion pound in 2010/2011, in 2009/2010 without changes.

