

Signing Memorandum of Understanding between Egyptian Statistical Agency & his Korean counterpart

In the framework of collaboration between CAPMAS and his Korean counterpart a Memorandum of Understanding has been signed between the two agencies during the 43rd Annual meeting session for the Statistical Committee of the US in New York ... The MoU was signed from the Egyptian side by Brigadier/ Abu Bakr El. Gandy – President of CAPMAS – with the presence of Ambassador Maged Abed El Fattah – permanent deputy of Egypt in the US... As well the Korean side Mr. / Ki Jong WOO – head of Korea Bureau of Statistics... At headquarter of diplomatic mission of Korea in New York.

MoU include collaboration on developing the Statistical field through exchanging the technical experiences, and meet the methodologies used in the implementation of surveys and censuses, in addition to the field of using IT in collecting, analyzing, and processing data, methods disseminate Statistical products, and planning to implement projects to joint researches between both sides.

The Objective of this collaboration will be achieved through exchanging organized study visits, and held various training activities and the most important the workshops and the mutual practical training between both sides.

The Memorandum is already under implementation since the date of signature and for the next five years and ends at 27/2/2017.