

15% increase of Egypt Export value to the most important East Asia countries in 2010

CAPMAS issued on Sunday 5/2/2012- Annual bulletin of "Trade Exchange between Egypt & most important East Asia countries" in 2010 and the bulletin handle with presenting and analyze the size of trade (exports & imports) with most important countries of East Asia "Malaysia – China – India – Japan – South Korea" and its most important indicators are as follows:

- Total value of Exports to East Asia countries reached 21.5 billion pound in 2010 against 18.7 billion pound in 2009 with an increase 15% and this exports represented by 13.9% in 2009, 2010 of total world exports.

- Total value of Imports to East Asia countries reached 74.7 billion pound in 2010 against 57.8 billion pound in 2009 with an increase 29.2% and this imports represented by 24.9% in 2010 against 23.1% in 2009 of total world imports.

- India ranked the 1st in exports where exports value reached 7.2 billion pound in 2010 against 8.1 billion pound in 2009 with a decrease 11.1%, and its most important items that exported to India was crude oil, as for imports it ranked the 3rd where imports value reached 8.8 billion pound in 2010 against 7.0 billion pound in 2009 with an increase 25.7% and its most important items that imported was meat, edible offal to eat and solar.

- China ranked the 2nd in exports where exports value reached 2.6 billion pound in 2010 against 5.4 billion pound in 2009 with a decrease 51.9%, and its most important items that exported to China was Refines oil, glass and crafts, as for imports it ranked the 1st where imports value reached 27.8 billion pound in 2010 against 21.8 billion pound in 2009 with an increase 27.5% and its most important items that imported was boilers , machines, mechanic appliances & its parts, machinery, machines, electrical equipments & its parts .