Total savings balances at insurance companies reached 18.7%

CAPMAS issued on Tuesday 7/6/2011 annual bulletin about savings of individuals' statistics at main saving basis for 2009/2010 and the main indictors of it are as following:

Total saving balance at main saving basis reached 1134,9 billion pounds in 2009/2010 compared to 1052,4 billion pounds in 2008/2009 with increase ratio 7.8% represented in the following:
First: Savings:

- Total saving balance at banking saving basis reached 776,0 billion pounds in 2009/2010 compared to 711,2 billion pounds in 2008/2009 with increase ratio 9.1%.

- Total saving balance at insurance organizations (National Organization for Social Insurance- Organization of mail Saving Fund) reached 269,4 billion pounds in 2009/2010 compared to 261,7 billion pounds in 2008/2009 with increase ratio 2.9%.

- Total saving balance at mail Saving Fund reached 80,7 billion pounds in 2009/2010 compared to 72,1 billion pounds in 2008/2009 with increase ratio 11,9%.

- Total saving balance at insurance companies for public and privet sectors reached 8,9billion pounds in 2009/2010 compared to7,5 billion pounds in 2008/2009 with increase ratio 18,7% due to the increase in net received premiums (current receipts) compared to previous year.

Second: Investments.

- Total investments in National Organization for Social Insurance for public and privet sectors reached 127,3 billion pounds in 2009/2010 compared to124,1 billion pounds in 2008/2009 with increase ratio 2,6% as it reached 180,9 billion pounds for public sector in 2009/20120 compared to 172,3 billion pounds in 2008/2009 with increase ratio 5.0%.

- Total investments at mail Saving Fund reached 85,4 billion pounds in 2009/2010 compared to 70,5 billion pounds in 2008/2009 with increase ratio 21,1% due to the increase in receipts at mail Saving Fund.

- Investments value in insurance companies reached 14,2 billion pounds in 2009/2010 compared to 11,7 billion pounds in 2008/2009 with increase ratio 21,4% due to the increase